St Aidan's is a place where God's love surrounds everyone; where pupils work together and are challenged to meet their goals because they 'Believe and Achieve'.

Dear Parents

Book Fair - Monday 17th September – Friday 21st September

The Scholastic Book Fair is in school the week of Monday 17th September – Friday 21st September. The book fair provides a vast range of good quality reading material and also is an excellent way of contributing to developing the reading material in school. Pupils will have opportunities during the school day to visit the fair and purchase any books.

However if you would like to join your child and choose a book together it will be open on the following times:

Monday - Friday: Before school 8.45 – 9.00am and after school from 3.30pm.

We hope you will be able to join us during the week and help us to increase the variety of books we have available in school.

Yours sincerely

Mrs James
Headteacher
